ROYAL ASCOT

Tuesday 15th – Saturday 19th June 2010

Royal Ascot is a unique event in the summer social calendar, steeped in tradition, heritage and pageantry dating back almost three hundred years. It is without doubt the greatest race meeting in the world and a celebration of everything that is uniquely British.

Ascot hospitality offers award winning cuisine and elegant service of a supreme class, designed to meet the expectations of its discerning clientele. There are a wide range of carefully tailored packages with different styles of service designed to suit all tastes.

The combination of horseracing and fine dining is not only a thrilling partnership but perfectly timed to ensure a relaxed and leisurely programme. With a race every 30 minutes, hosts and guests can view horses in the majestic 8,000 capacity Parade Ring before placing bets, then cheer home their horse and jockey.

Royal Enclosure Dress Code

Her Majesty's Representative wishes to point out that only formal day dress with a hat or substantial fascinator will be acceptable. Off the shoulder, halter neck, spaghetti straps and dresses with a strap of less than one inch and miniskirts are considered unsuitable. Midriffs must be covered and trouser suits must be full length and of matching material and colour.

Gentlemen are required to wear either black or grey morning dress, including a waistcoat, with a top hat. A gentleman may remove his top hat within a restaurant, a private box, a private club or that facility's terrace, balcony or garden. Hats may also be removed within any enclosed external seating area within the Royal Enclosure Garden.

Overseas visitors are welcome to wear the formal national dress of their country or Service dress.

Ladies and Gentlemen not complying with the above dress regulations will be asked to leave the Royal Enclosure and relieved of their Royal Enclosure badge.

PRIVATE BOXES Located Levels 2-6

You can sub-let a box at Royal Ascot in one of two ways – either by booking a box on a Box Hire basis, adding catering and beverages separately or, for single boxes, by booking on a Box Package basis, which includes food and drink as well as the Box Hire charge.

Booking on a box hire basis includes:

- Private hire of the box for the raceday
- Full allocation of Grandstand Admission tickets and box badges
- One car park label per couple
- Racecards & Racing papers
- Betting facilities close to the box

Catering is obligatory and is arranged separately for box bookings by our on-site caterer, Ascot Hospitality. On receipt of the box payment your details will be passed to Ascot Hospitality who will send you a range of menus and wine lists, together with an order form for your catering requirements. Please note that the official caterer must provide all of the catering.

Booking on a box package basis includes:

- Private hire of the box
- Grandstand Admission
- One car park label per couple
- Champagne reception with canapés
- Four course luncheon
- Selected fine wines with the meal and Port or brandy with coffee
- Afternoon tea
- Complimentary bar throughout the day including house champagne, house spirits, fine wines, beer and soft drinks until 30 minutes after the last race
- Racecards & Racing papers
- Floral arrangement

This menu is best designed for silver service, but can be served as a buffet if required.
