RBS Six Nations 2010 – Stade de France, Paris

France will be determined to establish themselves as the premier side in the Northern Hemisphere after two fairly mediocre seasons. They host the Grand Slam champions, Ireland, in February and the championship will come to a resounding conclusion with the crunch match against England in March.

STADE DE FRANCE - The Stade de France is one of the world's great sporting stadiums. This combined with the fantastic attractions that Paris has to offer, ensures that French rugby remains a firm favourite for corporate entertaining.

SUPERB HOSPITALITY FACILITY - We are delighted to offer hospitality within the stadium.
