THE DERBY FESTIVAL

Friday, 4th and Saturday, 5th June 2010

Epsom Downs Racecourse is the home of one of the most iconic events in the British sporting and social calendar - The Derby Festival. The two day festival of horse racing dates back to 1780 and will be held on Friday, 4th and Saturday, 5th June in 2010.

Friday 5th June is Ladies Day, which has become one of the unmissable social events of the year. Dress up in your finest to see fillies competing in the feature race - The Oaks. The other Ladies Day races include the Group 1 Coronation Cup and The Rose Bowl. Ladies Day lets stylish women take centre stage both on and off the course and offers a great opportunity to entertain on a more relaxed day.

The Derby is the greatest flat race in the world and headlines a great day of racing and entertainment at Epsom. Over 100,000 people visit Epsom Downs Racecourse on Derby Day and whether you spend the day in top hat and tails in the Queen's Stand or relaxing in the Tattenham Straight Marquee, you'll enjoy soaking up the fabulous atmosphere.

THE WINNING POST MARQUEE

The relaxed atmosphere in the Winning Post Marquee makes this a popular venue for those that are looking to entertain guests with a great day out, close to the action. It is situated just past the winning post on the inside rail. From your private terrace, which is right on the rails, you can watch the horses as they leave the parade ring and head to the start, and you'll see them thunder past as they pull up and return to the winner's circle.

The Winning Post Marquee Packages includes:

- Morning tea & coffee with pastries on arrival
- Champagne reception with canapés
- Four course meal with fine wines and liqueurs, followed by coffee & mints
- Complimentary bar (excluding champagne)
- Full traditional English afternoon tea
- Guest tipster
- Floral decoration on your table
- Exclusive outdoor trackside seating area
- VIP hostess service throughout the day
- Tote betting facilities
- TV screens to watch all the racing action
